

CAMBRIDGE STREET UPPER SCHOOL

Diversity Dialogues

UNCONSCIOUS BIAS IN SCHOOLS

Join CSUS on Thursday, January 30, 2020 from 6-8 PM for

An Evening with

Dr. Sarah E. Fiarman

An interactive workshop led by Sarah Fiarman about the phenomenon of unconscious racial bias that will examine conditions that perpetuate bias in ourselves and our institutions and impede our development as anti-racists. Sarah is the co-author (with Dr. Tracey Benson) of Unconscious Bias in Schools: A Developmental Approach to Exploring Race and Racism (2019, Harvard Education Press). She was a teacher and principal in the Cambridge Public Schools for thirteen years and now works as a leadership development consultant.

6:00pm: Dinner

6:30pm: Presentation and Interactive Workshop
CSUS Multi-purpose Room, 840 Cambridge Street

Free Admission!

Attendees are encouraged to donate to our fund for the annual Gr. 8 trip to NYC.

Please RSVP by January 24th to ensure dinner and childcare needs. Go to:
<https://tinyurl.com/jan30dialogue>

REMINDER: This is an adult-centered event.

CSUS Spells SUCCESS!