

Lesley

UNIVERSITY

RSTA's CREATIVE DESIGN Student Earns Full 4 Year Merit Scholarship!

Maxwell Berger 2021

Cambridge, MA – Maxwell Berger, a senior in the Creative Design Program at the Cambridge Rindge and Latin School, have been awarded a full scholarship for four years to Lesley University through its partnership with Cambridge Public Schools. This competitive, merit-based scholarship for the Lesley University College of Art and Design was initiated in 2007 for students meeting rigorous academic criteria, with preference given to students demonstrating a strong design portfolio, commitment to community, and public service.

The Lesley University Cambridge Rindge & Latin Merit based-full year scholarships are for full tuition and fees, along with a book stipend, for four years of study, and are awarded annually through a selection process from a pool of candidates.

Every year up to two, four-year full tuition merit scholarships are awarded to seniors at Cambridge Rindge and Latin School. Recipients may enroll in either the College of Art and Design or College of Liberal Arts & Professional Studies.

The Four Year Merit Scholarship Criteria:

Students must be graduating from Cambridge Rindge and Latin High School. Applicants applying solely to Lesley's College of Art & Design must have a minimum 3.0 academic GPA in a strong college prep background and an outstanding portfolio.

PAST CREATIVE DESIGN STUDENT RECIPIENTS:

Melissa Grajeda 2013

Jean Hodges 2009

Angela McKenzie 2011